Position Overview

We are looking for an experienced music teacher to be responsible for teaching music as part of the school curriculum. The music teacher will follow the guidelines as set out by the education department which includes the theory and practice of general music, singing and playing musical instruments. They should also prepare students for exams in music.

To be successful as a music teacher, you should create an enjoyable learning environment to inspire young minds and help them grow in appreciation of music. Ultimately, a top-notch music teacher should be skilled in playing musical instruments, planning concerts for student participation, and creating after school music clubs.

Key Responsibilities

- Teaching general styles of music, classical piano, practical and theory to all of the classrooms on a rotating schedule.
- Teaching choir, band and a combination of all to students from beginner to advanced level.
- Incorporating musical instruments and movement in lessons.
- Planning and implementing a program of instruction and lesson plans.
- Preparing students for school concerts and planned music experiences.
- Working with students on plays, concerts and other events that include music.
- Preparing students for practicum and exams.
- Inspiring and motivating students to extend themselves to after school music clubs.
- Building relationships and mentoring students.
- Assigning practice and other music-related homework and testing students on their knowledge.
- Keeping grades, meeting with parents, and sharing progress reports.
- Performing other functions with other teachers, such as school and lunchroom monitoring.
- Ensure all school policies and national regulations are met.
- Ensure a healthy learning center environment – including maintaining appropriate hygiene and cleanliness standards and safety and security of children.
- Maintain accurate records, forms and files.
- Maintain personal professional development plan to ensure continuous quality improvement.
- Attends staff meetings and training sessions.
- Be flexible in the face of changing circumstances or assignments.
